2013 Spring Program of Guided Walks

This spring, fotpin is holding four guided walks to introduce you to the many faces of the Pinnacle Nature Reserve

● Birds at Home

Sunday 6 October, 9 am to 11 am

John Brannan will lead a stroll around the avian hotspots of the reserve, observing the local birds and the visitors who come each year to nest at the reserve.

Meet at the Dungowan St entrance, Hawker.

● A Wildflower Ramble

Sunday 20 October, 9 am to 11 am

Experienced guide Rosemary Blemings will lead you on a delight-filled ramble, exploring the different plant species and habitats that the reserve has to offer.

Meet at the Dungowan St entrance, Hawker.

All welcome. Please wear clothing suitable for the weather, sturdy footwear and hat. Bring water and a camera and binoculars if you wish.

● Top and Bottom

Sunday 27 October, 9 am to 12.00 pm

Join Pax on a walk that takes in the delights of the main "top" reserve as well as the hidden treasures to be found in the "Bottom Pinnacle" to the south. Don't miss this chance to go beyond the boundaries and explore the possible future of the reserve.

Meet at the De Salis St entrance, Weetangera.

● Reading the Landscape

Sunday 17 November, 9 am to 11.00 am

Retired CSIRO landscape ecologist David Tongway will take a more in-depth look at the ecology of the reserve, looking at how landscapes work as biophysical systems and assessing the health of the Pinnacle's ecology.

Meet at the De Salis St entrance, Weetangera.
